1. REPORT ON THE PARTICIPATION IN CONFERENCE

1.1 Preamble:

About EQASA Project: The EQASA (Enhancing Quality Assurance in South Asia Higher Education Institutions) Project (from September 2016 to September 2019) is promoted by the European Commission under the scheme of the Erasmus+ Program. Globalisation and knowledge-based economies demand highly trained graduates with high quality education. Against this background, EQASA, aims at supporting sustainable socio-economic growth in South Asia by strengthening institutional capacity in HEIs and enhancing the culture of QA. The 3-year Project under the dynamic leadership of Prof. Yiouli Papadimantaki, Project Coordinator, University of Peloponnese.

EQASA Project Implementation: The project implementation is divided into three stages. The first stage is to understand the current situation and draw comparative analysis of QA practice and needs at HEIs in seven countries (Greece, Spain, India, Afghanistan, Nepal, UK and Italy). This in-depth understanding moves EQASA to the second stage, namely, training & learning. South Asian HEIs will upgrade their human and technical capacities to be transformed into institutional capacity. In the third stage, South Asian HEIs shall conduct internal assessments and draft a 4 year QA strategic plan to orient their respective QA development. Constructive feedback will be given by the EU HEIs. In parallel, the consortium will organise focused activities to engage policy makers, authorities, students, employers, and local communities to improve QA practice in the region.

Partners in the project:

1. University of the Peloponnese, Greece – Project Coordinator
2. Agora Institute for knowledge management, Spain – Academic Coordinator
3. Anna University, India
4. Dr. Babasahed Ambedkar Marathwada University, India

Kick-off Meeting (Korinthos, Greece): In the EQASA kick-off meeting, held at Korinthos – Greece during 2-5 May 2017, the administrative, organizational and financial aspects of the EQASA project were presented and discussed with all partners (mobility plan, action plan, setting up of administrative and quality boards). The basic principles of the European Quality Assurance system in Europe, characteristics of the national QA systems of all partners were also presented and discussed, making simultaneously some initial comparisons between European and Asian systems.
First Seminar (Anna University, India): The First Seminar was conducted at Anna University, Chennai, during 4-6 September 2017. The topics of discussion included the Importance of Quality Assurance & Management (QAM) in Higher Education: Rationale; Key Principles; Concepts; Principles of Good Governance of in Higher Education in relationship to key stakeholders most notably students and employers; Need for QAM and its role to address current challenges in our institution; Principles of Change Management, Building on SWOT analysis: Goal setting, change strategy adapted to your institution; Embedding QAM in organizational structures and roles etc.

Second Workshop (University of Genova, Italy): The objectives of second workshop include: Constituent parts of a internal self evaluation report (SER), Basic information needed to face an external assessment and to prepare a set of simple metrics necessary for QA purposes, Existing or new organizational structures to collect and collate the information to prepare SER, Preparation of Strategic plan based on SWOT analysis, Technology to help prepare self and external assessment with consideration of national and international standards (eg., regulations, education systems, infrastructure) etc.

EQASA International Conference (B.A.M University, India): The International Conference on Quality Assurance in Higher Education in Asian and European Universities, was organized by Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad, Maharashtra, India, during 2 – 4 March 2019 at VITS Hotel, Aurangabad.

1.2 Highlights of the Presentations during the Conference

Prof. B.A. Chopade, the Vice Chancellor of BAMU welcomed the delegates and gave an overview of national level and programme level accreditation in India. He also briefed about the various national level accrediting / ranking agencies.

Dr. Ajith R. Thete, Centre for Development of Leadership in Education (India), talked about the “Design of QA framework in India” and discussed the various stages of Assessment and Accreditation. He gave a comparison of Indian accreditation / ranking systems (NAAC, NIRF, ISO29990, NSQF, QCI) with international accreditation agencies (ENQA-UK, KMK, Bologna, Lisbon QIF, FINHEE-Finland, ICE, NVAQ - Netherlands). He also talked in detail about Outcome Based Education (OBE).

Prof. Yiouli Papadamantaki, University of Peloponesse, Greece talked about the various responsibilities of a teacher for quality assurance in education. She mentioned that the faculty members are given support for the preparations for accreditation of a programme. She concluded with the remark that the accreditation processes contribute towards quality culture and also for better coordination between the actions taken at Institution level and Departmental level.
Prof. John Gabriel, Sr. Professor, London Metropolitan University presented the topics “Developing a Quality Culture” and “Enhancing Quality: The case of Professional Ethics”. He briefed about Quality culture and about the employability and employment outcomes of enhancing quality at London Met University. He presented some case studies for professional ethics at work. He reiterated that ethics have to be maintained irrespective of change in policy, rules, etc.

Prof. Jagat Krishna Pokharel, Exec. Director, QAA and Dr. Sudha Tripathi, Fector, Tribhuvan University, Nepal, presented the strategic plan of the quality assurance system in TU - Nepal, implemented in 2007, which helped their University to achieve remarkable progress. The QAA is financially supported by Higher Education Project (HEP) of International Development Association (IDA). The details of accreditation procedure by UGC-Nepal’s QAA were presented.

Prof. Anand Prasad Subedi Exam Management Chief and Prof. Upendra Kumar Sharma Gaire, Faculty of Central managements Campus, Mid-Western University, Nepal also presented their University’s Quality assurance mechanisms. They mentioned that their University is committed to submit the Self Study Report to UGC – Nepal by 2020.

Dr. Sabitha Ramakrishnan, Deputy Director – IQAC, Anna University presented the case study of “NBA accreditation of B.E (E&I) programme in MIT Campus, Anna University”. She first acknowledged the then Head of the Department, Prof. J. Prakash who had prepared the powerpoint slides for presenting to the NBA committee in 2016. She then briefed about document preparation pertaining to the 10 criteria of NBA. She also highlighted the concept of Outcome Based Education and the methodology of quantifying every activity with respect to the NBA criteria. She particularly explained the cascade loop method of Feedback-based quality assurance and enhancement procedure which will ensure Continuous Quality Improvement (CQI). She also illustrated the mapping of Course Outcome with Programme Outcome and Programme Educational Outcome with examples.

Mrs. R. Rajeswai, IQAC SAP Campus Coordinator, Anna University presented the topic “QAA Processes in India – Criterion-wise evaluation”. She first explained the activities of IQAC, Anna University and the ways in which the activities of Anna University, in general, and IQAC, in particular, are relevant to the points mentioned in the template given by EQASA. She also explained the various best practices of the University and the challenges faced in quality assurance.

Prof. Ashok Tejankar, Pro-Vice Chancellor, BAMU, presented the topic “Vocational Education – A case study in Jewelry Design and Gemology”. He mentioned that UGC has launched a scheme on Skill development based Higher Education in vocational programmes (B.Sc Jewelry design and Gemology and B.Voc in Geology) which are programmes that have curricula and syllabi aligned with the geographical significance of Maharashtra with respect to deposits of precious stones. He discussed the inter-departmental collaborations for framing the theory and practical courses in the degree programmes. He also explained the various job opportunities for the graduates.

Prof. M.D. Shirsat, Director-IQAC, BAMU, presented the functions of IQAC in BAMU and briefed the quality initiatives taken by the cell for QA and accreditation. He presented the micro-level activities of IQAC-BAMU and also explained the criteria-wise documentation of records at BAMU.
