4. PUTHAK(K)AM:

"I have always imagined that Paradise will be a kind of a Library."
- Jorge Luis Borges

“Puthak(k)am”– A community Service-Based project that is successfully going on with the dedicated involvement of several Rotaract Clubs in Chennai namely RAC ACTECH, RAC Agni, RAC AIHT, RAC Akash RAC BMC, RAC Crescent, RAC DCE, RAC Dexterous, RAC DG Vaishnav, RAC Hindustan, RAC KCG, RAC Madras Mount, RAC New College, RAC Phoenix, RAC Queen Maris, RAC Sahas, RAC SCP Jain, RAC Sindhi College, RAC SIVET, RAC Spectrum, RAC Stella Maris and RAC WCC.

About 50 – 75 + Rotaractors have been working unceasingly to accomplish the goal.
The main idea of Puthak(k)am nurtured out of a premise of understanding and acknowledging the fact that books are the key to knowledge. With limited access or more often than no resources or reading materials available is often witnessed scenario among the underprivileged. The project’s primary goal is to make knowledge accessible to the needy to the maximum possible capacity. And through this endeavor, we believe that it would take the underprivileged a step closer to the fundamental right to knowledge being a little more accessible and achievable. The initiative in the first stage, targeted to find orphanages and old age homes that lack access to reading materials. Meanwhile, books were collected from fellow rotaractors, students, and several donors who had the kind and open heart to donate books. The books collected had a wide range where it started from Age 3+ and above. Old notebooks and unused college books that are no longer useful for the donors were also collected which later were exchanged in the market for storybooks, novels, etc, and made our fullest attempt for the library. It is never a “bad” book for a mini-library as long as there’s a learner who chooses the books and enjoys reading them. And then, as the final stage, the collected books were being set in the respective orphanages or homes that they have reached out to set the mini-library. Our rotaractors even amidst the covid situation are coping up and working tirelessly towards accomplishing the mission successfully. We truly believe that each book in the mini-library setup has something for everyone.
To establish mini libraries for each and every orphanage, old age, and physically challenged homes in Chennai.
