THIRD: All proposed projects, programs or work agreements including anything contemplated under a) through f) above, arising from this General Agreement, will be implemented as "Specific Agreements", after they have been agreed upon and duly authorized by the official representatives of AU and UCF. Each "Specific Agreement" will describe the details necessary to implement any joint project, such as the activities associated with the project, the responsibility of each of the parties, the budget for each activity, the sources of funding, personnel involved, installations and equipment to be used, work schedules, as well as all other specific terms and conditions necessary to achieve the specified objectives of the project. FIFTH: All cooperative activities associated with academic courses and programs must be consistent with the accreditation requirements of both institutions. Consistency with accreditation principles will be included in all Specific Agreements associated with the implementation of academic courses and programs. This inter-institutional General Agreement does not imply the extension of accreditation from one institution to the other.

SIXTH: Any student, academic personnel, faculty or scholar exchanges associated with this General Agreement must comply with all the legal and administrative requirements, including immigration, insurance and other applicable requirements, of the home and host institutions. The specific requirements for the visits, as well as the financial implications for each institution must be approved in writing by duly authorized personnel at each institution. The above referenced exchanges must be established through a separate Specific Agreement.

SEVENTH: Each party will each designate its own personnel to administer the activities associated with this General Agreement, as well as the development and implementation of any Specific Agreement. The personnel designated by each party to implement activities that arise from this agreement must hold current employment with the institution, and will be solely responsible to the institution to which it is employed.

EIGHTH: The parties may, jointly or separately, endeavor to obtain financial resources from other institutions, government agencies and national and international organizations for the development of activities associated with the implementation of any Specific Agreement.

NINTH: Any research generated in conjunction herewith (as further described in a Specific Agreement) shall be subject to unrestricted publication or dissemination, provided that (a) each party requires a copy of any proposed publication thirty (30) days in advance of submission to review for a party's proprietary information, patents and/or other intellectual property rights; (b) each party's proprietary information, patents and/or other intellectual property rights shall be protected by allowing the party who owns such rights to review the proposed publication prior to submission by the other party and the party who owns such rights will complete its review and make any objections within thirty (30) days of receipt of the proposed publication; (c) such publication or dissemination will not compromise patent rights and/or other intellectual property rights, or inadvertently divulge proprietary information. Any pre-publication or dissemination review shall be limited to consideration of such patent rights and/or other intellectual property rights and proprietary information concerns and shall be concluded within a period not to exceed thirty (30) days.

TENTH: a. UCF and AU agree and will ensure and communicate to their respective faculty, staff and students that such faculty, staff and students involved in the implementation of activities associated with this Agreement, will comply with all applicable United States export control laws, regulations and orders and that no party may export or allow the re-export of any export controlled information or item without prior U.S. government licensing or other authorization.

b. The parties further agree to comply with all applicable laws.

ELEVENTH: Public Records. It is State of Florida policy that all public records of the State (including state university records) are open for personal inspection and copying by any person. This agreement between UCF and AU, written communications, and other documents, papers and other materials made in connection with the transaction of official business between UCF and AU are public records and required by Florida statute to be open to the public. This agreement therefore may be cancelled at any time for either UCF's or AU's refusal to allow public access to all documents, papers, letters and other materials open to the public inspection under the State of Florida Public Records Law.

TWELFTH: In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, 20 U.S.C. §1232g, its implementing regulations, 32 C.F.R. Part 99 ("FERPA"), Section 1002.225, Florida Statutes, and UCF regulation, the parties agree to protect the confidentiality of student education records.

THIRTEENTH: The parties agree to comply with federal regulation Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 & 34 C.F.R. Part 106 (1972). Title IX is a comprehensive federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex, including sexual harassment or sexual violence, and gender-based harassment – or acts that target a person(s) based on their sex or gender status – in education programs and activities that receive federal financial assistance. Therefore, the partner represented by the undersigned agrees to its obligations that include, but are not limited to, reporting all they know about a known or reported Title IX incident as soon as they know it to the UCF Title IX Liaison.

FOURTEENTH: The present General Agreement will become valid upon signature by both parties and shall remain in effect for a period of three (3) years from its effective date. Upon expiration of this General Agreement, a Specific Agreement may be entered into between both parties, if both parties wish to do so. This General Agreement may be renewed upon the mutual written consent of both parties, but only upon review of the activities that have been pursued under this General Agreement and justification regarding why these activities should continue thereunder.

FIFTEENTH: This General Agreement may be terminated by either party upon three (3) months prior written notice to the other party; however, termination shall not affect the implementation of activities that have already commenced pursuant to a Specific Agreement. Those Specific Agreements will remain in effect until the required associated activities are completed.

SIXTEENTH: The parties recognize that it may be necessary for each to transfer to the other information of a proprietary nature. Proprietary information shall be clearly identified by the disclosing party as proprietary at the time of the written disclosure. Oral disclosures shall be reduced to writing and marked as "proprietary" and provided to the other party within thirty (30) days of such oral disclosure. Both Parties shall keep confidential any information of a confidential nature, subject to compliance with applicable laws. The parties are permitted to exchange proprietary information during the three (3) year term of this General Agreement. Nondisclosure obligations shall expire five (5) years after the effective date of this General Agreement.

SEVENTEENTH: The term "Intellectual Property" means individually and collectively all inventions, improvements and/or discoveries, patentable or unpatentable, copyrightable or uncopyrightable, including but not limited to mask works, computer software, both object and source code, data bases and works of authorship.

Intellectual Property developed solely by UCF shall be solely and exclusively owned by UCF ("UCF Intellectual Property"). Intellectual Property developed solely by AU shall be solely and exclusively owned by AU ("AU Intellectual Property"). "Joint Intellectual Property" means any Intellectual Property developed jointly by AU and UCF under this Agreement. Joint Intellectual Property will be owned jointly by AU and UCF, who agree to jointly determine filing and licensing subject to Title 35 of the United States Code for inventions and Title 17 of the United States Code for works of authorship.

"Background Intellectual Property" means Intellectual Property which was in existence, prior to the Effective Date of this Agreement, or which is created independent of this Agreement. The parties agree that Background Intellectual Property of AU and UCF are their separate property, respectively, and are not affected by this Agreement. Neither party shall acquire any claims to or rights in the Background Intellectual Property of the other party. Nothing in the Agreement shall circumvent or restrict UCF's pre-existing obligations with the U.S. government pertaining to any kind of intellectual property.

UCF is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award degrees at the associate, baccalaureate, master's, specialist, and doctoral levels. AU is accredited by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC). Implementation of this collaborative program does not constitute the extension of, or inclusion in, the accreditation from either university to the other. Neither UCF nor AU may use the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Colleges' (SACSCOC) logo in connection with this program or otherwise.

By signing this document, the parties acknowledge that they have reviewed and understand the content and extent of each of its clauses, and agree to carry out the actions necessary to implement it. Two copies of this document will be signed in English and (other language, if appropriate), both versions with the same content and validity.
