Sardar Patel Road, Guindy, Chennai 600 025, INDIA

Shizuoka University, Japan and Anna University, India (hereafter referred to as “both universities”) signed Memorandum of Agreement (hereafter referred to as “MoA”) on 31st July 2007 and extended for five years from 31st July 2012. Both universities enter into a new agreement under the following terms for the purpose of furthering educational and research exchange and thus deepening the friendship. This new MoA replaces the previous one, and ensures that the previous MoA had been continuously in operation until the signing of this new MoA.

1. Both universities agree to cooperate in an effort to expand opportunities for further development of research and other academic activities. Such cooperation will include the following activities.
 - i. Exchange of faculty, research scholars and administrative personnel
 - ii. Exchange of students
 - iii. Exchange of academic information, materials, and publications (including research reports, teaching materials etc.)
 - iv. Coordination of such activities as joint research, lectures, symposia
 - v. Other exchange activities to which both universities agree
2. The exchange specifications mentioned above are determined through mutual consultation between both universities and specified in the Appendix – I to this Memorandum of Agreement.
3. This agreement will come into effect upon signing by representatives of both universities. The term of validity is three years from the date of signature and can be extended through joint recommendation by both universities. This agreement may be terminated, even within the term of validity, by either or both universities upon submission of a request for its cancellation six months in advance.

Two copies of this Memorandum shall be made, one to be held by each university, and both shall serve as originals.
