

Anna University, Chennai-600025.

University Departments

Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy

Anna University is bound to conduct its governance in accordance with the highest ethical standards stipulated in the Anna University Chennai Act and Anna University Employees Conduct Rules. Anna University takes a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption and is committed to acting professionally that upholds the highest standards of honesty, fairness and accountability with integrity in all its working procedures and relationships. It is the goal of Anna University to avoid acts that might reflect adversely upon the integrity and reputation of the University.

Anna University is committed to raising awareness among its employees, students, contractors, and other stakeholders about the consequences of bribery and corruption. By identifying and addressing potential corruption risks, the policy seeks to safeguard the university's reputation and financial interests. It emphasizes due diligence in engaging with third parties, including suppliers, contractors, and collaborators. Students or Staff involved in corrupt activity may be issued a warning or sentenced to a major penalty. Anna University takes its legal responsibilities very seriously.

Anna University is committed to upholding all laws relevant to countering bribery and corruption in each jurisdiction in which it operates. As the anti-corruption laws of India have extraterritorial application, University, its employees and associated persons will be bound by the most stringent requirements of these laws in respect of its conduct in all jurisdictions they operate, even if such conduct would otherwise be permitted by the local law of a particular jurisdiction.

The period from the last week of October till the first week of November is observed as Vigilance awareness week by the Government of Tamil Nadu. Hence, a pledge is taken by all the Staff of Anna University to make awareness about the perils of bribery and corruption.

Vice-Chancellor

VICE-CHANCELLOR
ANNA UNIVERSITY
CHENNAI - 600 025