SPEAKERS

- Prof. G. Sekar (Prof., IIT Madras)
Dr.V. Subramanian (Senior Principal scientist,CLRI)
Dr. P. Anbarasan (IIT Madras)
Dr. R. Vinu (IIT Madras)
Dr. U. P. Senthilkumar (Orchid
Pharmaceuticals Pvt Ltd, Chennai)
Dr. D. Mohan
(Former Professor, Anna University)
Dr. S. Sivasankar
(Retired Professor, IIT, Madras)
Dr. R. Ragupathi (NIT Puducherry)
Dr. Vishnu Shankar (NIT Warangal)

TOPICS COVERED

- ❖ Organic Synthesis
- ❖ Energy conversion and Storage
- ❖ Biomass Conversion
- ❖ Electrochemistry
- ❖ Nanochemistry
- ❖ Pharmaceutical chemistry
- ❖ Catalysis and Theoretical Chemistry

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON RECENT ADVANCES IN CHEMISTRY (RAC-19)

JANUARY 4-5, 2019

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

College of Engineering, Guindy is a pioneer in Technical education in India, established in 1794 (later renamed as Anna University in 1978). It offers higher education in Engineering, Technology, Architecture and Applied Sciences relevant to the current and projected needs of the society. Besides it also promotes research and developments, conducting more scientific events.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Chemistry Guindy campus of Anna University, Chennai was established in the year 1975 to pursue teaching, research, consultancy and impart training programmes in different fields of Chemistry. Since its inception the Department offers core courses in chemistry like M.Sc (Applied Chemistry), M. Phil. (Chemistry), M. Tech. (Polymer Science and Engineering) and Ph.D programs.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Dr. P. Kannan (Professor (Rtd), UGC-BSR-Faculty Fellow)

Dr.N. Rajendran (Professor)

Dr.M.Sarojadevi (Professor)

Dr.A.Pandurangan (Professor)
