ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Anna University started functioning on 4th September, 1978 as a unitary type of university to promote teaching and research in the field of Engineering, Technology, Architecture and Applied Sciences relevant to the current and projected needs of the society. The University engrosses in research, education, training, technological developments and related activities across a broad spectrum of academic environments and works collaboratively to advance knowledge and make significant contributions to the society. The University has established a collaborative research programs with world class institutions from various countries. Anna University has four regional centres at Coimbatore, Madurai, Tiruchirappalli and Tirunelveli to sphere head the academic activities throughout the state.

ABOUT THE REGIONAL CENTRE

Regional Centre of Anna University, Tirunelveli was established on 2007. It offers 12 full time Post Graduate courses and 4 part time Post Graduate courses. The vision of our Regional Centre is to develop globally competitive workforce and entrepreneurs. The institution intends to supplement its teaching and research infrastructure. It aspires to increase industrial and research collaboration with adaptation to modern methodologies. The institute takes every activity to focus towards sponsored research and also provides consultancy services in industrial, educational and society relevant areas. The college is housed in a sprawling campus with aesthetic building.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering offers a PG degree in Applied Electronics. It endeavour’s to impart high quality, competency based technical education in engineering and technology to the younger generation with required skills and abilities to face the challenging needs of the industry around the globe. The department strives hard to excel in various research areas of Electronics and Communication Engineering for the progress of the nation and it is equipped with well qualified & experienced faculty members and well established laboratories.

SCOPE OF THE WORKSHOP

Biomedical Signal and image Processing has always been a fascinating field of research. The workshop addresses the design and development of advanced image processing techniques and the interpretation of biomedical signals to improve non-invasive monitoring, diagnosis, disease prevention and pathology treatment. With the help of Biomedical Signal and image processing, surgeons can monitor distinct symptoms. The workshop provides an opportunity to discuss and debate about the advantages and drawbacks of current biomedical signal approaches and the possible future paths for researching in this line. The workshop will include the distinguished lectures from the prominent personalities in the biomedical and the related fields, where they will share the recent trends and applications in this field.

WORKSHOP HIGHLIGHTS

- Cardiac Signal Processing.
- Algorithms in Medical Image Processing.
- Introduction to fMRI and its applications.
- Emerging Technologies in Biomedical Engineering.
- Computer-aided Diagnosis of Retinopathy of Prematurity.

SPEAKERS FOR THE WORKSHOP

Experts from IIT, Anna University, University of Calgary, Sree Chitra Tirunal Institute for Medical Science and Technology, MIOT Hospital and Industry will deliver the lecture to enrich the workshop.

LEVEL OF PARTICIPANTS

Faculty from Engineering Colleges, Industrial Professionals, Research Scholars and UG/PG Students are expected to benefit from the lectures to be delivered by experienced resource persons.

REGISTRATION DETAILS
