Important Instructions - Preparation of the Report of Project Work,
Distance Education Programmes – MBA / MCA / MSc

The Students of the Distance Education Programme (MBA/MCA/MSc) of Anna University, Chennai are instructed to strictly follow the Guidelines for the Preparation of Project Report available in the Web-Site of the Centre for Distance Education (http://cde.annauniv.edu/Default.aspx) while preparing their Project Reports. Project Reports which are not prepared as per the Guidelines will be rejected.

The Supervisors of the Project Work are requested to kindly go through the Report and make sure that the Reports are prepared as per the Guidelines before giving the Bonafide Certificate. If the Reports are not prepared as per the Guidelines and submitted to the Supervisors, Supervisors can reject the Report at the initial stage itself and instruct the students to prepare the Report as per the Guidelines and resubmit to the Supervisor.

The Project Work In-Charges and Study Centre Coordinators are request to go through the Report and make sure that the Reports are prepared as per the Guidelines. If the Project Reports are not prepared as per the Guidelines, please reject the Report.

In order to maintain the standards and uniformity in the Project Reports, all concerned are requested to strictly follow the Guidelines and kindly cooperate with the Evaluation Process of the Project Work.
