Taipei Medical University (TMU) is offering a short-term program in AI for Efficient Health Care, Brain Sciences & Bio-imaging and Biomedical Engineering Frontiers in Health Care for Indian students who would like to broaden their learning horizons. Combining lectures, site visits, lab practice, cultural excursion, and Chinese language training, the International Honors Program (IHP) aims to provide Indian students a unique two-week study experience at Taipei.

Course Content :

- Lecture
- Site Visit
- Lab Practice
- Excursion
- Cultural Experience
- Mandarin Course

The program will be held from 10th to 21st June 2019 on TMU's Main Campus and Daan Campus, both located in central Taipei with easy access to major attractions in the city.

Program Fees: US$ 700 (inclusive of all lectures and visits, access to laboratory facilities, basic meal plan during course days, accommodation, insurance, and excursion.)

★Early Bird Rate: US$500 (registration completed by 15 April 2019)

A scholarship of US$500 will be awarded to up to 25 participants based on the merit of their application, which means that those who complete registration before the early-bird deadline might win a chance to attend the Program with a full fee waiver.
